

Figure 1 – Polson Flood Pumping Station (FPS) and .Comminutor Station (downstream siphon chamber), looking east.

Figure 2 – Downstream siphon chamber access, removeable roof hatch to intermediate floor (left), stair access to intermediate floor (right).

Figure 3 – Downstream siphon chamber at intermediate floor level. Stair access and access hole in intermediate floor.

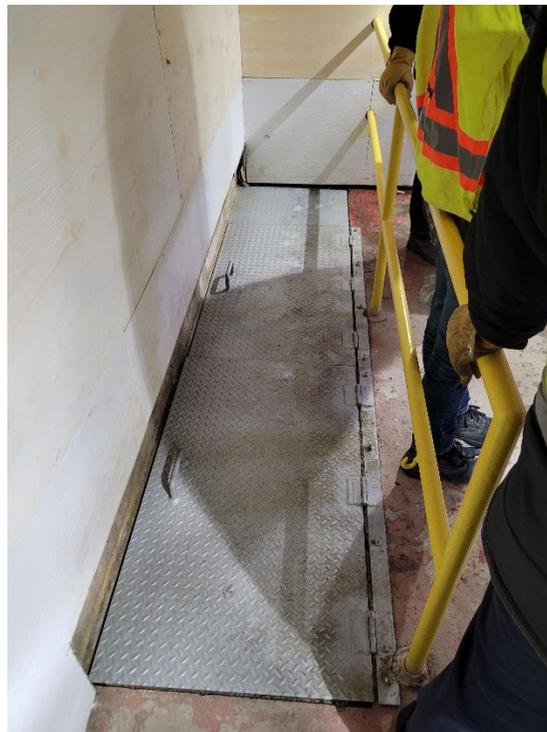

Figure 4 – Stair access to lower level of downstream siphon chamber from intermediate level.

Figure 5 – View of lower level and incoming siphon piping from intermediate level floor opening, looking east.

Figure 6 – Shared access approach to upstream siphon chamber, looking west.

Figure 7 – Upstream siphon chamber and access door, looking west.

Figure 8 – Access hole to intermediate floor level of upstream siphon chamber.

Figure 9 – Access hole in intermediate floor of upstream siphon chamber, looking west from upper level access.

Figure 10 – Lower level access to existing siphons, from intermediate level access hole.

Figure 11 -Upstream siphon inlets, 300 mm siphon on left (to be lined), 450 mm siphon on right.